Your real life heroes?

My father

In 1984, as I returned from military service, I decided to take on my parent's estate. I expanded and reorganised the vineyard progressively, which was fully planted with Ugni Blanc at the time, and it reaches today 22,5 hectares of vines. I am very proud to perpetuate the family legacy and savoir-faire.

Château Puy De Guirande

BORDEAUX

Village: Val-de-Livenne

Total winegrowing area: 17 hectares

Terroir: Soil of sandy gravel - 20-year-old vines - 20-meter-high

Winemaking and ageing: Mechanical harvest at the end of September. Pumping over and delestage during alcoholic fermentation, control of temperatures. Racking after malolactic fermentation followed by aging in concrete vats.

Blend: 70% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Sauvignon

Tasting comments: The colour is bright garnet. The pleasing nose offers a delicate combination of fruity and floral notes. On the palate, exceptional full freshness blends with distinctive, mouth-watering tannins evoking licorice.

Food and wine pairings: White meat
